There were only five large cities in America in 1800. Philadelphia, with 66,000, was the largest, the seat of government, and the center of wealth and culture; New York was next, with 60,000; Baltimore was third, with 26,500; Boston fourth, with 25,000, and Charleston, S. C., fifth with 19,000 people.

The Twentieth Century Almanac.

THIS issue of the REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK marks the close of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth. It is certainly fitting that some recognition should be made of the completion of a hundred years of human history. The material progress of the world during that period has been marvellous, and the church of Jesus Christ meanwhile, by her equally marvellous growth and development, has proven herself to be leaven hid in the meal.

IN the following pages will be found something of the progress which the Reformed Church has made during the century. They exhibit some rare pictures of pastors and church buildings at the beginning of the nineteenth century; they record the growth of the church in territory, numbers, wealth and activity; and they represent particularly the educational, missionary and benevolent operations of the denomination as we pass from the old century to the new. The knowledge of what has been done, under the Divine blessing, cannot fail to call forth the most devout gratitude, and beget within every heart larger faith and hope for the years of the new century upon which we are privileged to enter.

Faithfully,

THE CHRISTIAN WORLD CO.

There was no kerosene nor gas; both were unheard of. The tallow dip was the standard light, and on the frontiers even tallow was scarce. There the torch of the forest was used. Lamps were in the homes of the very rich, fed with the whale or vegetable oils; but there were very few, and the flame hardly brighter than the candles. For fifty years into the century these lights were used, for it was not until 1858 that petroleum was discovered, and even in 1861 kerosene was very expensive, costing sixty cents a gallon.

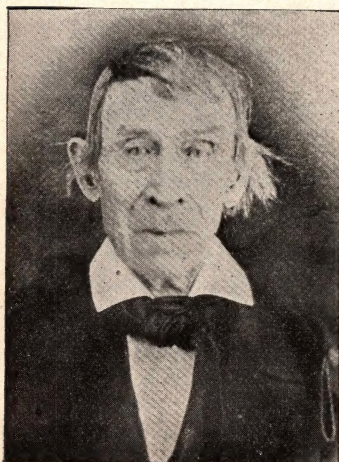

PROMINENT REFORMED PASTORS, ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

publication had a brief existence. Later he published his Dogmatic Theology which is still to be found in the libraries of some of our ministers.

WILLIAM OTTERBEIN was born June 3, 1726, at Dillenburg, Germany. His father and grandfather were Reformed ministers and also five of his brothers. He was one of the six young ministers who came to America with Schlatter. His first charge was in Lancaster, Pa. He labored also elsewhere in this state, but his name is generally associated with Maryland, for it was there that he gave the later years of his life.

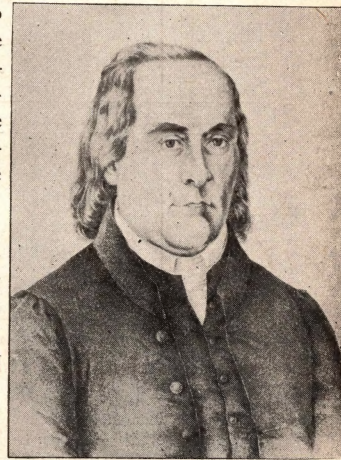

THOMAS WINTERS'

THE whole number of ministers in the Reformed Church at the beginning of the nineteenth century was about thirty, according to the minutes of the Synod. The records are meager, and portraits in many instances are not to be found. We were very fortunate in securing three, however, representing men who labored in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Ohio.

The first is REV. SAMUEL HELFENSTEIN, D. D., who was born in 1775 and lived until 1866. His first pastorate was the historic Boehm's Church in Pennsylvania, although he is best known as the pastor of the Race St. Church in Philadelphia where he labored over thirty years. When the Synod determined to establish the first Theological Seminary Dr. Helfenstein was elected to a professorship but declined the call. He started a German magazine entitled, Evangelische Zeitung, but the

WILLIAM OTTERBEIN.

The third portrait on this page is that of REV. THOMAS WINTERS, who was born in Maryland in 1777, and went to Ohio as a missionary about nine years after the beginning of the nineteenth century. He visited the towns and villages in Western Ohio and Eastern Indiana, preaching the gospel to the pioneer settlers of what was then regarded the western frontier. His field of labor at one time extended over seven counties. In connection with these duties as missionary he educated five young men for the ministry, two of whom were his own sons, David and Thomas. The former organized the First Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio, and both rendered long and faithful service in establishing and building up the church they loved in the beautiful Miami Valley.

We regret that it is impossible to present in this group the faces of other prominent pastors in the Reformed Church at the beginning of the nineteenth century. The whole list is not very long. Some of the familiar names are Daniel Wagner, Nicholas Pomp, Philip Milledoler, Frederick L. Herman and John Brown.

There were but 5,300,000 people in America when this century opened. France had five times as many people; Germany, and even Austria, had four times America's population; Italy had three times as many; and so had Great Britain. Even Spain had double our number of people, and little Portugal was almost our rival in numbers.

ARCHITECTURE ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

IT is interesting to contrast the style of church building a century ago with that of today. On this page are presented three excellent views of Reformed churches which have more than one hundred years of history. They indicate not only the architectural simplicity of those early days, but the additional fact that our fathers believed in the future. The church was a permanent institution and therefore its buildings must be substantial. In material, size and design, they compared very favorably with other public buildings in those days.

The first picture in the group represents the St. Mary's Reformed Church at Silver Run, Md. This particular building was erected in 1820, but it is a splendid illustration of the style of architecture in the Reformed Church at the beginning of the century.

On the opposite side of the group is an excellent picture of the building in which the First Reformed congregation of Lancaster, Pa., worshipped for 97 years. It was built in 1753 and used for worship until 1850, when the present edifice was erected.

In the center of the group and at the top is a picture of the first Reformed Church in Philadelphia, Pa. The old Hexagonal building in which Rev. Michael Schlatter preached as early as 1747 preceded the one shown above. We are fortunate in being able to show also the interior of this church which is typical of many others. This building was erected under the pastorate of Rev. William T. Sprole and was used continuously until July 30, 1882. On December 23d of the following year the congregation moved into its new house of praise which had been erected under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. David Van Horne.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, READING, PA.

TRINITY CHURCH, DAYTON, OHIO.

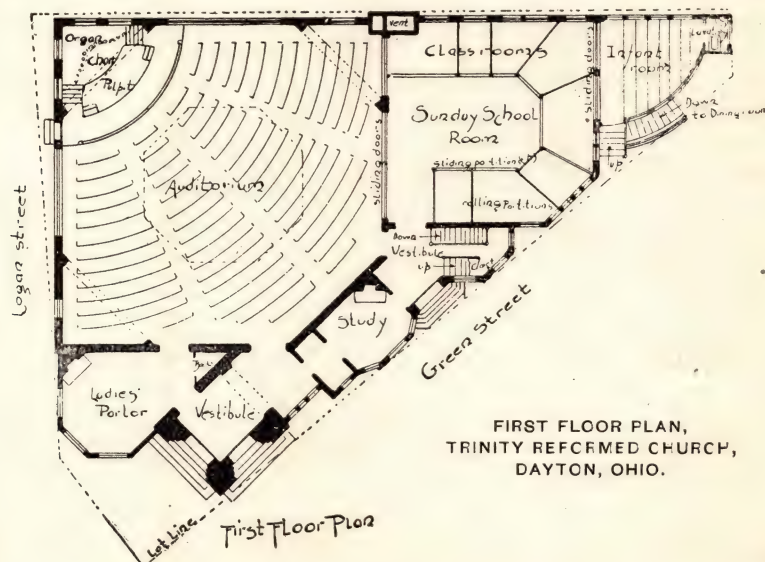

REFORMED CHURCH ARCHITECTURE IN 1901.

HERE are two well known churches. Both have new buildings, modern in construction and thoroughly representative of Reformed Church architecture at the beginning of the twentieth century.

The first on the page is St. Stephen's Church completed in December, 1894, at a total cost of $38,000. It stands on a triangular lot facing three streets. The accompanying illustration shows the interior arrangement of the building which was designed to incorporate certain ideas of church life and accommodate the varied activities of a vigorous and aggressive congrega-in Reading, Pa., which was erected in 1899. It is a stone building of Gothic design, substantial and elegant throughout, and valued at $40,000.

The other picture shows Trinity Church in Dayton, Ohio. This handsome building was tion. In a significant sense the style of architecture reveals the thought and life of the people, so that a comparison of the buildings on this page with those erected a century ago as shown on page nine, is an interesting study.

It is amazing how people lived in 1800, judged from modern standpoints. Half of them dwelt in log huts. Window glass was a luxury even in the coast towns. Some people used oil-paper; others had simple openings in the walls, which in winter were closed with plank split from logs. The iron stove was a positive luxury; the furnace was unheard of. Great fireplaces supplied heat, but could not keep these huts comfortable in winter.

REV. G. W. WILLIARD, D. D , LL. D.

NO record of the nineteenth century in the history of the Reformed Church is complete which fails to recount the labors of this earnest and tireless worker. Born eighteen years after the beginning of the century he lived within three months of its close. Over sixty years were spent in the ministry of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and nearly a third of that time in the active pastorate. For thirteen years he was the editor of the Western Missionary, now The Christian World, and for twenty-four years the honored President of Heidelberg College. No man was more widely known throughout the Reformed Church and none more universally loved than Dr. Williard. Few have wrought as effectively for the kingdom as did he.

In what are Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin there lived 6,000 people in 1800, spread over that whole territory. The "Far West" was then Kentucky, Ohio and Western New York. Beyond the Alleghenies was practically a wilderness. Now 53,000,000 people live within the area that belong to our nation in 1800.

THE EDUCATION OF MINISTERS.

THE Reformed Church represents what is usually called an educational religion. With her time-honored custom of catechization she has sought to develop a people able to give to any man that asketh a reason of the hope that is in them. Naturally, her ministers had to be educated men. Those who came first from Germany and elsewhere, as missionaries, had been trained in the schools and universities of their own lands. They became the teachers of others and thus the church in this country was supplied with ministers until about seventy-five years ago. At the beginning of the nineteenth century the Reformed Church had no theological seminary. At the beginning of the twentieth there are four, each of which is doing splendid service.

Beginning in 1820, repeated efforts were made to establish a Theological Seminary, but without success until March, 1825, when a theological school was opened at Carlisle, Pa. Four years later, this Seminary was removed to York, later to Mercersburg, and in 1871 to Lancaster, where it has become a well-equipped institution.

As early as 1836, efforts were made in the Ohio Synod to establish a Theological Seminary. Some work was accomplished at Canton, and later in Columbus, but it was not until 1850 that the Synod established Heidelberg Theological Seminary, at Tiffin, Ohio. Since that time, this institution has rendered valuable service to the church, especially in Ohio and the Western States.

The Mission House, located at Franklin, Wis., was founded by the Sheboygan Classis in 1859, for the purpose of educating pious young men for the ministry of the gospel, among the German people of this country. The German language is employed chiefly, in the instruction of the students. This Seminary has a full three years' course, and is performing a great work for the German people of the Reformed Church.

The youngest Seminary in the Reformed Church is the Ursinus School of Theology, which became a distinct department of instruction in Ursinus College in 1871. This school was removed from Collegeville to Philadelphia, Pa., two years ago and is doing a splendid work.

These Theological Seminaries own property and endowment, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars. They have graduated more than a thousand men who have gone out to preach the gospel. The number of theological students last year, in these schools, was 120.

Many of the young men who have been graduated from our theological schools and are now preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ were educated by the church. The money thus given for beneficiary education has been well invested. Scores and hundreds of faithful young men have been enabled to give their talents and energies and life to the church.

Uncle Sam spends each year in his Government $550,000,000, not including the extra outlay occasioned by our late war and the new accessions of territory. In 1800 he spent $12,500,000. In four years he now spends more than the entire wealth of the nation in 1800.

The Colleges of the Reformed Church.

It is impossible within the limits of this book to describe the splendid work being done by our colleges. A century ago the church had no educational schools. Some idea of what is now being accomplished may be gathered from the fact that more than three thousand young men and women have been graduated from these schools, and that the total attendance at the present time approximates seventeen hundred. The valuation of the property is nearly $800,000, and the endowment over half a million.

One hundred years ago the cooking-stove was unknown. The cooking was done in the fire-place, in pots and kettles standing on long, slender legs well above the coals. The old brick oven was fired once a week to almost glazing heat and filled with appetizing dishes.—Herald and Presbyterian.

HOME MISSION WORK.

REV. JOHN WILLIAM WEBER is said to be the first Reformed minister to undertake work west of the Alleghenies. He located in Westmoreland county, Pa., in 1783. Soon after, requests came for pastors from some of the Southern States, but there was no synodical action on the subject of missions until 1812. It was then determined that pastors should be sent out as missionaries, and each congregation was requested to take up a collection for the support of this work. At the meeting of synod in 1826, the appointment of a Board of Missions was urged. The result was an organization called, "The American Missionary Society of the German Reformed Church." This society appointed from its members a Board of Missions. From that time on, the work of Home Missions has gone forward sometimes under the direction of the Boards of the district synods, and sometimes under the Board of the General Synod as at present. Some idea of the scope of this work may be gathered from the fact that on October 1, 1900, there were on the roll of the General

Board 101 missions. Of these, two are Bohemian, three are German-English, nine are Hungarian, one Harbor and eighty-six English. Eighty per cent of these missions are in the cities and large towns, against forty-five per cent ten years ago. The General Board now has sixty-seven building funds aggregating $4,300. It has in addition $30,000 from apportionments and other sources, and $110,000 invested in lots and churches. The income from apportionments for the year just closed amounted to $46,000. The work of the General Board as now carried on, began in 1889. Since that time, the amount raised including what the missions paid for their own support and the offerings of the whole church for the home work, and including also the extension work is $1,350,000. A splendid record for eleven years! To this must be added also the work carried on by the German Synods of the church, in the interest of distinctly German missions. There are two Boards in charge of this work, one in the East and the other in the West. At the meeting of the General Synod in 1899 fifty-one German missions were reported, seventeen of which had been enrolled during the triennium. At that time also, the Board of Church Erection of the Synod of the Northwest and the Central Synod had a fund of $30,550.80,—a testimony to the thrift and self-sacrifice of the Germans. Like the English, the appeals for new missions have far exceeded the ability of the treasury. All our mission work has grown rapidly in late years. General Superintendent, Dr. Fouse says: "There is a crisis upon us in our home work. Not in a sense that we shall be compelled to retrench in what we are now doing, but in the sense that we shall not be able to keep up the present rate of progress, unless the church greatly increases her offerings for this work. To stand still means, in this instance, that others will have to do the work that we should do. If the church will arouse herself and give as the Lord has blessed her, she will have a bright future before her."

The United States is larger now than all Europe in point of area. It has 3,600,000 square miles—one-fourteenth of the land surface of the entire globe. In 1800 we had just 825,000 square miles.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

THE work of foreign missions in the Reformed Church, begins with the meeting of the synod at Lancaster, Pa., in 1838, when the Board of Home Missions in its report suggested the organization of a Foreign Board. Having received the suggestion favorably, a Foreign Board was at once elected, consisting of the following persons:

Rev. Diedrich Willers,	Rev. Elias Heiner,
Rev. Bernard C. Wolff,	Rev. John Cares,
Rev. Samuel Gutelius,	Rev. Joseph F. Berg,
Rev. Samuel R. Fisher,	Elder John J. Mayer,
Elder Matthew Shaw,	Elder Burchert Mayer,
Elder J. D. Seidenstricker,	Elder Daniel Buckey.

Rev. Diedrich Willers was elected president, a constitution was adopted and $945 was raised in cash and pledges. Until 1865 this Board like that of the Presbyterian Church, operated through the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. There was contributed from 1840 to 1865 nearly $28,000, most of which was given for the support of Rev. Dr. Schneider, who labored in Central Turkey.

After withdrawing from the American Board, nearly a thousand dollars was paid to the German Evangelical Foreign Mission Society for the support of two Reformed ministers, who were laboring in India. In addition to this about $1,500 was paid toward the support of a mission among the Winnebago Indians in Wisconsin.

At the meeting of the General Synod in 1878, the Board was instructed to establish a mission for the church, in some foreign land. Japan was determined upon as the field, and in May 1879, Rev. A. D. Gring sailed for Yokohama.

In 1883, the second missionary, Rev. J. P. Moore was elected and commissioned to this field.

The history of our foreign work since that time is well known to the church. At the meeting of the General Synod in May 1899, the Board was instructed to open a mission in China, which is now being done. Two missionaries have already been commissioned for this work, and the Province of Hunan selected as the field in which to begin. The following is a list of foreign missionaries in the Reformed Church, at the beginning of the twentieth century:

A woman was taken before a French magistrate and asked her age. She said twenty-eight. The judge looked up and said: "Madam you were before me ten years ago, and you gave the same age." Said the woman: "I do not doubt it. I am not a woman that will say one thing today and another thing tomorrow."

THE WOMEN OF THE REFORMED CHURCH.

RECORD of what the Reformed Church has accomplished during the nineteenth century would be very incomplete if it failed to speak of what has been done by the faithful women. Although three-fourths of the century passed before they undertook any definite work, they have still done much for the kingdom of Christ. In view of the great blessing which the gospel has brought to the women, it is no surprise that their efforts in definite Christian service should be directed especially toward their sisters in heathen lands, whose condition is a sufficient appeal to any heart.

The history of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church is an interesting story. The first formal organization was effected on February 20, 1877, in the First Reformed Church at Xenia, Ohio, due to the zealous efforts of Mrs. S. B. Yockey, whose husband was pastor of the church at that time.

The Classis of Illinois, Synod of the Interior, seems to have the honor of organizing the first Classical Missionary Society, which held its first meeting August 31, 1883. About the same time, the Pittsburg Synod recognized the value of woman's work in the church, and passed a resolution, calling upon the Board of Home Missions to assist in establishing Woman's Missionary Societies, both congregational and classical, within bounds of that synod.

In 1887, the General Synod recognized the representatives of the Classical and Synodical Missionary Societies, which resulted in the organization of what is now known as the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. It is impossible to mention here, all that has been accomplished by this important organization of the church. At present the W. M. S. G. S. is providing for all the expense of conducting the Girls' School at Sendai, Japan, and at the last triennial meeting pledged itself also to raise $4,000 annually for the home missionary work of the church. We have no doubt every dollar will be promptly paid.

There are in the Reformed Church at present, 153 Woman's Missionary Societies, with a total membership of over four thousand. During the three years preceding their last meeting, which was in May 1899, these missionary societies gave to home and foreign missions, the handsome sum of $16,292.

On this page is presented a group picture of the women who have been chosen to preside over the affairs of the society since its organization thirteen years ago. Mrs. S. B. Yockey was elected first president of the organization, and served from 1887 to 1890. Mrs. H. E. Whitmore succeeded her, and served from 1890 until 1896, having been re-elected at the end of the first term. Mrs. H. M. Herman became president in 1896, was re-elected in 1899, and is therefore, guiding the destinies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod, at the beginning of the new century.

"For three months during the war I occupied the most dangerous position in my company"
 "Indeed?" "Yes; every morning I curried the eight mules belonging to our commissary."

A burglar entered the house of a poor man, and in his search awakened the owner. Leveling his pistol, he said: "If you stir you're a dead man. I'm hunting for money." "Let me get up and strike a light, and I'll hunt with you," replied the man.

THE ORPHANS' HOMES OF THE CHURCH.

IN 1863 Rev. Emanuel Boehringer of Philadelphia, founded in his own house what he called "The Orphan's Home of the Shepherd of the Lambs." On the 13th day of July in the following year, the Home was moved to Bridesburg, Pa., and October 1, 1867, to Womelsdorf where it has become permanently established, owning nearly a hundred acres of land and buildings which cost over $60,000. The total amount of the endowment last July was nearly $16,000. At that time there were in this Home 120 children ranging in age from two to seventeen years. The total number cared for during the year was 137, and the total number since the Home was established in 1863 is 686. The name was changed to "Bethany Orphan's Home" in 1873. The Rev. Thomas Yundt became superintendent in 1886 and is serving at the present time with much acceptance.

St. Paul's Orphan Home is located on one of the most beautiful hills in the town of Butler, Butler county, Pa. It owns forty acres of land, twenty of which are under cultivation. It was chartered by the State March 23, 1868. It admits poor orphan children of the Reformed Church, and others by the payment of a reasonable amount for their support. Its present number of orphans is seventy-five, with good accommodations for one hundred and twenty-five. Its real estate is valued at forty thousand dollars, and has an endowment of $7,781.35 and liabilities amounting to $7,206.35. The present superintendent, Rev. P. C. Prugh, D. D., is now in his nineteenth year of service. The whole number of children cared for in the home since its founding is four hundred and forty.

The Ft. Wayne Orphan's Home was established in 1883 by the Northwest and Central Synods, fifty-seven acres of land were purchased in the beginning, and later an additional tract of 100 acres. Suitable buildings have been erected so that the property of this Home represents a value of not less than $50,000. There is an indebtedness of $5,000, which in fact is reduced $1,000 by the amount in the sinking fund. The Home has an endowment of $1,750. There are at present seventy-three children in this Home, and more than that number have been sent out into life. Rev. John Rettig was the first superintendent. Upon his death February 21, 1899, Rev. B. Ruf was chosen by the Board to carry on the important work.

THE DANIEL STINE MEMORIAL HOME.

The Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows of the Reformed Church.

THIS is the oldest institution of the church. Its history reaches almost to the beginning of the nineteenth century. It is the outgrowth and successor of what was known in the early history of the church as the widow's fund. At the first its beneficence was limited to the widows of ministers and only to those residing in Pennsylvania. But as the church grew in members and increased in her ministry its scope was enlarged, so that in the year 1810 it became an incorporated body with a liberal charter covering the needs of ministers and the widows of ministers throughout the entire church, East and West, German and English. Its purpose is to extend financial aid to aged and disabled ministers or the widows of ministers if they are in need of such help. Help is given only to such ministers as are members of the society, but relief can be and is given to the widows of ministers though their husbands were not members. The privilege of membership in the society extends to any minister of the Reformed Church in the United States in good standing. By the payment in one or more installments of sixty-five dollars, a life membership is purchased or the payment of five dollars as initiation fee and three dollars annual dues will make an annual member.

DANIEL STINE MEMORIAL HOME.

This home located in Myerstown, Pa., is a home for aged ministers, their wives and the widows of ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States. It is the property of the Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows and is controlled by a Board of managers chosen by the society, who serve for a period of three years. It is a large three story building with fourteen rooms, six rooms of which are furnished and ready for use. The grounds are large, five acres in extent, filled with fruit and ornamental trees. It is well adapted for its purpose. There is but one minister at this time residing in the Home. It was opened formally June 9, 1896.

The Sunday-school Board of the Reformed Church.

THE first Sunday-school in the Reformed Church, of which we have any record, was organized with forty scholars April 14, 1806, in what is now known as the First Church of Philadelphia; but religious instruction in the parochial school and catechetical class had been given the young from the beginning of the denomination. The first Sunday-school publication of the church appeared January 1, 1873, under the title "The Heidelberg Teacher." It contained comments on the International Lessons, which had just been adopted. It was issued bi-monthly by the publishers of The Christian World, and edited by Rev. David Van Horne, who was at that time pastor of the First Church, Dayton, O. At the beginning of the twentieth century the Sunday-school is receiving most generous consideration. The work is carried forward under the direction of an efficient Board appointed by the General Synod, and which operates through two special departments, viz: Business, and Sunday-school and Missionary. The former includes the editorial work and publication of thirteen periodicals. Six of these, namely: the Home Department Quarterly, the Junior Scholars' Quarterly, the Heidelberg Picture Cards, the Heidelberg Picture Roll, the Church Festival Helper and the weekly Sunday-school paper, Leaves of Light, are new publications established by the Board in the last four years. The total circulation of Heidelberg Lesson Helps has increased nearly one hundred per cent since the Board took charge, in 1896. It is gratifying to know that these helps circulate largely in the Reformed Church of America, commonly known as the Dutch Church, and that the Christian Reformed Church also uses the "Advanced Scholars' Quarterly," as their authorized periodical. The most noteworthy new publication of the last year has been the issue of the Sunday-school Hymnal. Its worth is shown by the fact that the second edition, representing an issue of fifty thousand, has been called for within seven months of its publication. A large share of the annual earnings of the Business Department is appropriated to the work of Sunday-school Missions.

The Sunday-school and Missionary Department is supported by an annual free-will offering from every Reformed school. It does pioneer work for the Board of Home Missions, by employing Sunday-school missionaries to establish new schools, out of which grow Home Mission congregations. A large proportion of the missions enrolled in the last four years

Six of these, namely: the Home Department Quarterly, the Junior Scholars' Quarterly, the Heidelberg Picture Cards, the Heidelberg Picture Roll, the Church Festival Helper and the weekly Sunday-school paper, Leaves of Light, are new publications established by the Board in the last four years. The total circulation of Heidelberg Lesson Helps has increased nearly one hundred per cent since the Board took charge, under the Board of Home Missions, were started in this way. There are many week schools in destitute neighborhoods and new schools in missionary territory, which could not exist, much less be organized, were it not for the grants of literature made by the missionary department of the Board. Hundreds of dollars are expended in this work annually. The Twentieth Century Movement in Reformed Sunday-schools, approved by the General Synod, by the District Synods and the classes, was organized and is carried forward by the Missionary and Sunday-school department. It is hoped that every school connected with the church will largely increase its membership in the year 1901 as an expression of thanksgiving for the blessings of the nineteenth century, which is eminently the Sunday-school century. To make the twentieth century Christian, lay hold of the children. The Sunday-school of today is the church of tomorrow. This vital truth was never more thoroughly appreciated by the Reformed Church than at the present time.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS AT THE BEGINNING OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

EDITORS OF RELIGIOUS WEEKLIES.

Of the various agencies which promote the interests of the kingdom, none are mightier than the religious weekly paper. The absolute necessity of this publication is especially manifest in this newspaper age, when all men are reading and thinking for themselves as never in the history of the world. A century ago the Reformed Church had no publications, but today it is conceded by all that a church member can be truly intelligent in his devotion and service and can keep in touch with the work, only through the church paper, which represents to him the thought, spirit and life of his denomination.

On the opposite page, the four papers owned and published by the church are presented in miniature. On this page may be seen the faces of the men who are editing these papers at the beginning of the new century. Their work differs somewhat in matters of detail, but they have a common aim, and a common opportunity, in the responsible positions they occupy in the church. Rev. Cyrus J. Musser became acting-editor of the Reformed Church Messenger the last week in March 1896, and in the following September was elected editor-in-chief, which position he has since held. Former editors of the Messenger were Revs. C. G. Fisher, P. S. Davis,

S. R. Fisher, B. S. Schneck, and Louis Mayer.

Upon the death of Dr. Praikschatis in December 1896, Rev. G. Dolch was elected editor of the Kirchenzeitung, and has therefore just completed his fourth year of service. When the Ohio Synod purchased The Christian World, the Board of Publication appointed Rev. Chas. E. Miller acting editor. He served in this capacity, and also as pastor of Trinity Church, from November 1, 1898, until May 1, 1899, when he resigned the pastorate and became editor-in-chief. Former editors of The Christian World were, Revs E. Herbruck, M. Loucks, I. H. Reiter, S. Mease, T. P. Bucher, G. W. Williard and J. H. Good.

Rev. L. P. Krome became editor of the Reformed Church Herald November 1, 1899. He is also serving in the pastorate. His predecessors in the editorship of this paper were, Revs. D. H. Fouse, and H. S. Gekeler.

It is a matter of regret that so many members of the Reformed Church do not read at least one of these papers each week. Wherever there is lacking a genuine loyalty to the denomination, it is due very often to a lack of intelligence.

Reformed people are able to do vastly more than they have done in the century just closed. We believe they are willing, but they must have the facts which the church paper furnishes.

The Religious Weeklies of the Reformed Church.

ONE hundred years ago, the Reformed Church had no publications whatever. In 1805 there appeared The Synodal Ordnung which had been adopted in 1793. Twelve years later, the Minutes of Synod were published in German, and after 1825, in German and English.

The first periodical publication issued by the church was The Religious and Missionary

The Christian World now owned and published by the Ohio Synod, was established in 1848 by Rev. J. H. Good, at Columbus. It appeared first semi-monthly, under the title, The Western Missionary, but soon became a weekly, and in 1868 its name was changed to The Christian World. During part of its history, this paper was owned and published by private parties. On November 1, 1898, it again became the property of the church, and entered upon a new and larger field of usefulness.

The youngest paper in the church is the Reformed Church Herald, which was established six years ago. It is the property of the Synod of the Interior, and circulates chiefly among the western churches. It is a significant fact that all these papers came into existence chiefly through the influence of the missionary spirit of the church. The cause of education was soon espoused, and the field of usefulness for the church paper enlarged until it included every interest of the denomination. The church paper contains the news, discusses methods, outlines plans and urges action, so that it has become an indispensable agency in all aggressive work. In the Christianity of the 20th century more than ever, will the value of the church paper be recognized.

Magazine of the Reformed Church which appeared at Carlisle, Pa., in 1828, under the direction of the Board of Missions. It was published monthly at first, then semi-monthly, and since 1835 weekly. The name of this paper has been changed to Reformed Church Messenger.

In 1836 a German publication appeared under the title, Der Christliche Herold, and in 1837 another under the title, Die Evangelische Zeitschrift. These two papers were superseded by another in 1837, with the title, Die Christliche Zeitschrift. Subsequently the name of this paper was changed to Kirchenzeitung, now published at Cleveland, O., and is the organ of the German Synods of the church.

Bethesda Deaconess Home and German Hospital,
Cleveland, Ohio.

AT the meeting of the General Synod in 1896, the office of deaconess was recognized, and in three years later, the following definition adopted: "A deaconess is a Christian woman, a member of the church, who devotes herself to the service of the Lord in ministering to the sick and needy and spiritually distressed, consecrated to this service by the laying-on of hands. To be proficient in her office, she should be taught in Bible history and Christian faith, as well as in such branches as are necessary for her to know in her service. She shall, if found competent, be consecrated to this office by a minister of the church."

The work with us is, therefore, in its infancy, but promises to become one of the important agencies of our church life.

The first Deaconess Home in the Reformed Church, in this country, was established at Cleveland, O., and is known as The Bethesda Deaconess House and German Hospital. This institution was incorporated in 1894, for the training of deaconesses. It has been fostered largely, by the German churches of Cleveland, under the immediate supervision of Rev. Dr. Roentgen. At present there are, in this Home, eleven deaconesses. There is in connection with the Bethesda Home, also a German hospital, very pleasantly situated, and having beautiful surroundings. Its well appointed wards and private rooms are open to all

The Reformed Deaconess Home and Hospital of Alliance, O., was organized on the evening of January 30th, 1900. After a short season of prayer in which all present, who were all members of the Reformed church, took part, it was unanimously decided to go forward with this work. The Association became incorporated under the above name April 12. On the 18th of April a mass-meeting was held in the Reformed church which was addressed by Rev. Benj. S. Stern.

The officers of the Board of Directors are: President, Rev. H. E. Kilmer; Secretary, C. O. Waltz; Treasurer, J. A. Boyd; Auditor, Rev. G. W. Henning. Rev. G. H. Souder, President of Eastern Ohio Classis, is also a member of the Board of Directors. Many ministers and elders of North Eastern Ohio are members of the Association.

The Association will soon own property worth $10,000 of which one-half has been raised by the citizens of Alliance. At the recent meeting of the Ohio Synod, this Home was recommended to the hearty support and patronage of the Reformed people. It has been established largely through the efforts of Rev. H. E. Kilmer, pastor of the English Church at Alliance.

REFORMED REVIEW AND YEAR BOOKS.

ON this page are presented in miniature, four important publications of the church. The first is the Reformed Church Review edited by William Rupp, D. D., who is assisted by a corps of able writers. It is published quarterly in the months of January, April, July and October, by the Eastern Board of Publication, and is regarded the lineal successor of the Reformed Church Quarterly Review, which was a continuation of the Mercersburg Review, founded in 1849. Like its antecedents, the Review is devoted to theological inquiry, the sciences and general literature.

Three publications are issued annually under the title, The Reformed Church Almanac and Year Book. One of these appears in German, published by the Central Publishing House, of Cleveland, Ohio. The Eastern Board of Publication issues an Almanac and Year Book, and so also does The Christian World

Company, of Dayton, Ohio. The first English Almanac of the church was published by Dr. Harbaugh, in 1864. Then, the Almanac was the chief feature, but as the publication has developed, it has become valuable as a Year Book for the church.

In 1883 the Reformed Publishing Company issued the first Western Almanac and Year Book, so that this issue, known as the century edition, is volume nineteen. When the Ohio Synod purchased The Christian World, it began also the publication of the Almanac and Year Book. The issue a year ago appeared in the historic tri-colors of the church, to the great delight of all Reformed people. In addition to the usual features of previous editions, this issue contains some rare pictures, valuable statistics, and interesting contrasts, showing the growth of the church in territory, numbers, wealth and activity, during the nineteenth century. It is hoped that the knowledge of what has been done cannot fail to provoke the most devout gratitude, and also inspire in every loyal heart larger faith and hope for the opportunities of the new century.

The representations on this page and elsewhere in this book, serve to illustrate the value which the Reformed Church now places upon her literature. A decade and a half ago, Rev.

Dr. Dubbs, in his Historic Manual of the Reformed Church wrote: "We fear, however, that the church has not yet learned fully to appreciate the importance of properly encouraging its publication interests. In these days it ought not to be necessary to insist upon the power of the Press; and it is very certain that the church cannot fully accomplish her mission without employing that power to the utmost in the service of her blessed Lord."

The Reformed Church appreciates the value of the printed page today as at no time in the past, and early in the new century will hasten to provide a still more comprehensive and more perfect denominational literature.

A certain paper representing socialism reports 4,400 new subscribers in a single week. Energy and perseverance did it. When the church is once fully aroused to the need of Christian literature in the homes of the people, and exerts the same energy, she will have equal success.

Some idea of the growth of the Reformed Church during the century which has just closed, may be gathered from the figures given below:—

Necrology.

Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year intervening between October 1, 1899, and October 1, 1900.

REV. ALFRED G. BERKEY was born November 6, 1855, in Berks county, Pa., and died at his home in Massillon, Ohio, October 16, 1899, aged 43 years, 11 months and 10 days. He was baptized in infancy, and confirmed at the age of eighteen, at Zionville, Pa., by Rev. R. S. Apple. Feeling called to proclaim the gospel of Christ, he prepared himself for college at the seminary at Perkiomen, Pa.; afterwards attending Heidelberg College and Seminary at Tiffin, Ohio, graduating from the college in June, 1884, and from the seminary in May, 1886. He was duly licensed and ordained, and began his ministry at Waynesburg, Ohio, being a member of St. John's Classis, Central Synod. He labored there about four years, when he accepted a call to the charge at Upper Sandusky, Ohio, remaining there about four years. His next and last field was in the Tuscarawas charge, Ohio Synod, where he began sometime in March, 1894. Here, as in other fields of labor, his efforts as under-shepherd were blessed and he was instrumental in doing much good for his Master. He was ever loved by his parishioners and respected by the communities in which he labored. He is buried at Waynesburg, Ohio. A wife and children survive him.

REV. HENRY ST. JOHN RINKER was born in Woodstock, Va., February 28, 1819, and died January 31, 1900, aged 80 years, 11 months and 3 days. He was baptized in infancy by Rev. George Leidy, and confirmed October 29, 1837, by Rev. Jacob F. Dieffenbacher. Early in life Mr. Rinker was impressed with the thought that he should give his life to the ministry, and began a preparatory course in Woodstock Academy. In 1834-35, he was in the high school in York, Pa., and in 1837 became a member of the Freshman class in Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa. Sickness and other reasons prevented him from taking a full collegiate course. He left college and for three years taught school at Woodstock, during which time he studied theology privately. In the spring of 1842 he was licensed to preach by Virginia Classis, then in session in St. John's Church, Augusta county, Va. He was commissioned as missionary in part of Rockingham and Shenandoah counties. Here he labored for two years. On May 18, 1844, he was ordained, and shortly after installed as pastor of the Mill Creek charge, at that time composed of seven congregations. This vast field now constitutes three charges. In this field he labored for twenty-eight years. In 1874 he accepted a call to the Lovettsville charge in Loudon county, Va., where he labored arduously until October, 1890, when he retired from the ministry and removed to his home near Maurertown, Va., where he quietly and peacefully spent the evening of his days. As a preacher, Rev. Rinker was above the average, and was what could truthfully be called a sound gospel preacher. He was always intensely in earnest when preaching, and seemed to feel every word he uttered. His sermons were fresh, edifying, and instructive. In the social circle he was cheerful, pleasant, and communicative. He was the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Virginia Classis for more than a quarter of a century. He was married to Miss Mary Fravel, July 7, 1840, and together they lived in joyous wedlock nearly fifty-five years, she passing to the great beyond April 7, 1895. Father Rinker lies buried in the beautiful cemetery at Maurertown.

REV. JACOB HASSLER, D.D., was born in Mercersburg, Pa., in 1824, and died at his home in Fort Loudon, Pa., February 5, 1900, aged 76 years. Our brother was educated in the Reformed institution of his native place, graduating from Marshall College in 1845, with a class of six, and from the Eastern Seminary in 1849, with a class of five. He was ordained in 1851, and served charges at Mercersburg, Martinsburg, Boonsboro, Md., and Shippensburg, Pa. During a number of years he served as supply to the two small congregations of the Fort Loudon charge. Several years ago he retired from the active ministry. While he was pastor at Martinsburg the Blair County Institute was founded and for some years he served as principal in connection with his pastoral work. He was in the ministry forty-nine years, was an acceptable preacher, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of those who knew him to a high degree. Early in his ministry he was married to a daughter of Mr. Peter Stenger, and she survives him.

REV. FRANK NELSON BLEILER was born in the village of Overton, Pa., January 9, 1865, and died February 27, 1900, aged 35 years, 1 month and 18 days. His boyhood was spent with his parents on a farm in Sullivan county, Pa., where he also attended the public schools. He was baptized in infancy and at the age of sixteen confirmed as a member of the Reformed Church by Rev. Phaon Kohler. When attaining to manhood he felt the call to preach the gospel. In 1888 he entered Towanda Collegiate Institute, where he studied for two years. In 1891 he entered the Collegiate, and in 1892 the Theological Department of Ursinus College, at Collegeville, Pa. On August 19, 1894, he was ordained and installed as pastor of Brownback's Reformed charge, in Chester county, Pa., where he served acceptably and faithfully for three and a half years. After a year of much needed rest because of failing health, he accepted a call to the East Vincent charge, and was installed April 9, 1899. But disease had fastened its fangs upon him, and while the new church was nearing completion his soul was being drawn nearer to its home above. The church was dedicated, but the pastor was not able to be present to rejoice in the completion of the house that they had builded to God. He was married on October 30, 1897, to Miss Anna Frook, who survives to mourn his early death. He is buried in the cemetery adjoining Brownback's Church, where he began his ministry.

REV. CALVIN O. KOHLER was born June 12, 1868, at Vera Cruz, Indiana, and died March 29, 1900, at Findlay, Ohio, aged 31 years, 9 months and 14 days. He remained on his father's farm until 1890 when he answered the call of his Master to follow him in special service, and entered the Mission House at Franklin, Wis., to prepare himself. After a course of eight years, he graduated from the seminary, June 21, 1898, and was licensed to preach by Zion's Classis. In September of that year he accepted a call to the congregation at Findlay, Ohio, and was ordained on November 24th. This was his only pastorate. He was a wise, faithful and conscientious pastor, respected and loved by his people. On September 28, 1898, he was married to Miss Francis R. Heche. This union was blessed with a little daughter, who with the mother mourns his death. He is buried in the cemetery at Vera Cruz, Indiana.

REV. A. B. SHENKLE was born in Unionville, Pa., March 27, 1815, and died at his home in Millersville, Pa., April 22, 1900, in his sixty-sixth year. He attended college at Mercersburg, Pa., where he also prepared himself for the gospel ministry. He was ordained in 1848. His first charge was at Trappe, Pa. He next served at East Vincent, Pa. In 1869 he accepted a call and became pastor of the charge at Millersville, Pa. He labored here until April 1, 1878, during which time the present church building at Millersville was erected. He organized a congregation and erected a church building at Willow Street. Later he supplied the congregation at Marietta, until 1893, when he retired from the active ministry, and continued to reside at Millersville until his death. He was an energetic, active, and hard working servant of his Lord. He was twice married, both wives preceding him to eternity. He is buried in the cemetery at Millersville.

REV. W. R. H. DEATRICK, D.D., was born in St. Thomas, Pa., June 28, 1834, and died at his home in New Bloomfield, Pa., May 2, 1900, aged 65 years, 10 months and 4 days. He was baptized on September 14, 1834, by Rev. Fred Rahausser, and confirmed by Rev. N. Gehr, D.D., on May 4, 1850. His college training consisted of two years each in Marshall Institute at Mercersburg and Franklin Academy at Chambersburg. Subsequently he studied theology privately at Chambersburg during two years under Rev. Samuel Phillips, with valuable assistance from Revs. S. R. Fisher, B. Bausman and B. S. Schneck. Brother Deatrick was licensed to preach by Mercersburg Classis, May 22, 1860, and was ordained on November 17th of the same year. His ministerial life was spent in the following charges:—Three and a half years he was pastor of the Grindstone Hill charge; from April 1864, to October 1873, pastor of the Gettysburg charge; then eight years pastor of the Mechanicsburg charge; on October 1, 1881, he became pastor of the New Bloomfield charge, composed of two congregations, which he served until his death. In this charge he was successful to a marked degree. It was largely by his influence that the most imposing church in the Juniata Valley was erected in Newport in 1890. For seventeen years he faithfully served Zion's Classis as stated clerk. In 1888 he was elected president of the Potomac Synod. He also served as a member of the Board of Missions, and for ten years was a member of the Board of Visitors of the Seminary at Lancaster, Pa. In 1896 the honorary title of D.D. was conferred on him by Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa. On May 3, 1855, he was married to Miss Mary Clark Maxwell. He lies buried in the cemetery at Newport, Pa.

REV. JAMES W. MABRY was born near Mertztown, Pa., June 22, 1853, and died at his home in Cherryville, Pa., May 16, 1900, aged 46 years, 10 months and 24 days. He early evinced a desire to enter the ministry, and with that end in view entered Ursinus College, graduating in 1877, and from the Department of Theology in 1879. The same year, at a meeting of classis, he was examined and licensed. In January, 1880, he accepted a call to the charge at Kreidersville, Pa., residing at Cherryville. This charge he served for a score of years and was his only charge. He was an earnest preacher both in English and German. He was married to a Miss Stamm, who with a daughter survives him. He is buried in the cemetery by the Longswamp Church, in Berks county, Pa.

REV. CARL AUGUST LIMBERG was born December 25, 1824, in Elberfeld, Germany, and died in Butler, Pa., June 13, 1900, aged 75 years, 5 months and 18 days. From 1844 to 1847 he served in the army, and in 1848 came to America, locating in Wisconsin. For a short time he was engaged in farming and afterwards in the mercantile business. In 1853 he entered the Seminary at Tiffin, Ohio, graduating in 1854 and was licensed the same year. His first field of labor was in the Luthersburg charge, in Clearfield county, Pa., where he ministered for ten years with great acceptance and much success. In 1864 he accepted a call to St. Paul's German Reformed Church, at Butler, Pa., where he has since resided, with the exception of six months in 1873, when he served a congregation in Brooklyn, N. Y., but was compelled by reason of much sickness to return to Butler. In 1867 he became the first superintendent of St. Paul's Orphan Home, at Butler, in which position he continued with but little compensation until 1871, when he resigned the superintendency of the Home and devoted all his time to the work of his pastorate. In the same year he retired as pastor of the Butler congregation, but continued to serve two other congregations in that vicinity. In 1897 disease forced him to cease from active work. He was twice married. On March 18, 1851 he was married in Brooklyn, N. Y., to Miss Bertha Schmidt, of Barmen, Prussia. A few years afterward while on a trip to their native home in Europe his wife died and is buried in the Fatherland. On May 3, 1860, he was married to Miss Susanna Kuntz, who survives him. He is buried in the Butler cemetery.

REV. RICHARD BITTLE REICHARD was born near Pymont, Montgomery county, Ohio, January 4, 1848, and died June 23, 1900, at his home in Dayton, O., aged 52 years, 5 months and 17 days. He spent his childhood near Lewisburg, Ohio. At the age of nineteen he was received into the Reformed Church by Rev. Dr. H. M. Herman. He was a devoted Christian and faithful to his church duties. At the age of twenty-one he expressed a desire to enter the gospel ministry, and though poor in this world's goods, he determined to go forward and trust the Lord for the ways and means. He entered the College at Tiffin, Ohio, and after a long and hard struggle, graduated with honor to himself and the institution. He at once entered the Seminary at the same place, and in due time graduated. At a meeting of the Ohio Synod, held at Wooster, Ohio, in June 1874, he was licensed. He accepted a call to the Reformed Church at Greenville, Ohio, and was ordained December 20, 1874. He served the following charges: Greenville, Springboro, Highland, New Lisbon, Swanders, and New Madison—all in Ohio. His last ministerial work was as supply to Mt. Carmel congregation, near Dayton, Ohio, during which time he was the stated clerk of Miami Classis. As a preacher he was plain and emphatic; as a pastor, kind, loving, and faithful in his services to his flock; as a man, he lived as he would have others live—in Him who had called unto him in his young manhood and said, "Go, preach my gospel of redemption." January 4, 1876, he was married to Ella E. Steele, of Greenville, Ohio, who with three sons, survive him. He lies buried in the beautiful cemetery at Greenville, nearby the church in which he began his ministry.

REV. ROBERT LISBERGER was born in Lich, Grosz Herzogthum, Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany, and died at Bath, Pa., June 27, 1900, aged 70 years and 3 days. The ministerial mantle was handed down to him from father to son through three or four generations. He began preparations for the ministry by entering the University at Geissen, at Frankfort-on-the-Main, but before the completion of his studies financial reverses and other troubles compelled him to discontinue his theological studies. He came to America to begin life anew, landing in New York City penniless and friendless in 1853. After many struggles he finally landed at Reading, Pa., and accepted a position with the Reading Adler, a German paper. Here he gave evidence of the possession of a poetic mind, and the many productions of his pen were eagerly sought after. In connection with his regular occupation and poetic recreations he privately continued his theological studies, and frequently made addresses on religious and other subjects. Thus he spent about six years in Reading, when he moved to Maxatawny, Pa., and completed his studies under Rev. Charles G. Herman. At the end of three years he was licensed to preach, March 10, 1863, and was ordained in August of that year at Welsport. He served one year as assistant pastor to Rev. Sassaman Herman in Kutztown, and then became assistant to Rev. John Gantenbein in the Kreidersville charge. While serving in this charge, he preached in the old Snyder school-house, near Bath. The school-house gave way to a large and beautiful church building, and Rev. Lisberger continued as pastor without interruption until disabled by paralysis, about three years ago, thus ministering to the same people for nearly thirty-five years. In 1872 he added to his field a "handful" of foreign Germans at Oxford Furnace, New Jersey, and during his pastorate there of twenty-five years increased the membership threefold. He also served the congregation at Bushkill Center for nearly twenty years. This is evidence that his labors for the Lord were in abundance. He was married in 1865 to Miss Lydia Boyer, of Kreidersville, Pa. She died August 4, 1885, and he was married the second time to Mrs. Louise Gortmuller, of New York City, in 1898, and she survives him. He is buried in the family lot in the cemetery adjoining St. Peter's (Snyder's) Church.

REV. GEORGE R. ZACHARIAS was born in Reading, Pa., and died at his home near Upper Strasburg, Pa., August 24, 1900, aged 76 years. He studied at Marshall College, in Mercersburg, Pa., graduating in 1852. After a period of six years, he entered the Seminary at Mercersburg, and graduated in 1860. The same year he was licensed, and in 1861 ordained. His first and only pastoral charge was at Upper Strasburg, consisting of four congregations. He labored here only about two years, when ill health forced him to abandon the active ministry. He removed to a farm near Upper Strasburg, where he resided until his death. His wife died nearly ten years ago. He is buried in the cemetery by Epler's Church, five miles from Reading, Pa.

REV. GEORGE W. WILLIARD, DD., LL., D., the son of John and Mary Williard, was born in Frederick county, Maryland, June 10, 1818, and died at his home in Dayton, Ohio, on September 17, 1900, aged 82 years, 8 months and 7 days. His boyhood days were spent on the farm, as he himself said, "at constant and hard labor, according to the fashion of farm life at that day." He was early sent to catechise under Rev. J. C. Bucher, and was confirmed by him when fifteen years of age. His educational advantages were quite meager, consisting of little more than reading, writing and arithmetic. He was early impressed with a desire to enter the ministry. The death of his father opened the way, as the farm on which he was raised was sold, leaving him with nothing definite to do. He entered the high-school at York, Pa., when about sixteen years of age, and continued there until the school was removed to Mercersburg, Pa., where Marshall College was established in 1835, and from which institution he graduated in 1838. He studied theology two years at Mercersburg and was licensed to preach by the Eastern Synod in October, 1840, and ordained shortly after in Jefferson, Md., by a committee of the Maryland Classis. This was his first charge, and consisted of three congregations, one being in Virginia, twelve miles distant. He served here a little over four years, and then supplied the Funkstown congregation for six months, after which he served the Huntingdon charge for two years, and at the same time taught school in an academy. His wife's health being delicate, he resigned this field and accepted a call to the charge at Winchester, Va., with the hope that the climate would be beneficial to his helpmate. After three years here, he became pastor of the church at Columbus, Ohio, 1850. While here, he was, in 1853, elected, editor of the Western Missionary, which position he held for thirteen years in connection with his pastoral duties. In 1855 he became pastor of the charge at Dayton, Ohio, consisting of the First Church in the city and Mt. Carmel four miles from the city. The charge was divided soon after. The Bethel congregation and the Mt. Carmel congregation were then constituted a charge, and Rev. Willard became the pastor, along with the editorial work on the Western Missionary, which was at this time being printed at Dayton. He was called to the presidency of Heidelberg College, and assumed charge in September, 1866. Here he spent the best years of his long, vigorous and active life, and his labors and sacrifice for this institution are too well known throughout the Reformed Church to call for a record here. Suffice it to say, that he found the work in a discouraging condition, but by his efforts and the help of Henry Leonard, "The Fisherman," erected a president's house ($4,450), a ladies' boarding hall ($7,000), and new college building ($60,000). These were all paid for before he severed his connection with the institution in 1890. In addition, there was an endowment of $91,000, a library fund of $6,000, and $25,000 in notes. In October, 1890, he was elected Professor of Ethics and Apologetics in Ursinus College and Department of Theology, at Collegeville, Pa., and also served for some time as acting president of the college. In 1898 he resigned and removed to Lancaster, Pa., where he resided until April 1, 1895, when he came to Dayton and began the establishment of the last great effort of his life—Memorial Reformed Church, on East Fifth Street. In November, 1898, he retired from the active ministry, and has since then been pastor emeritus of the active and faithful congregation he gathered together. Doctor Willard did much literary work in connection with his ministerial and professional work. He translated from the original Latin and published in English the "Commentary of Dr. Zacharias Ursinus on the Heidelberg Catechism;" assisted in the preparation of the "Western Liturgy of the Reformed Church in the West;" wrote and published "The History of Heidelberg College;" prepared and assisted in the publication of "The Treasury of Family Reading;" wrote and published "The Life, Work, and Character of Henry Leonard;" the last, and regarded by him as his best and most important, was his publication of "The Comparative Study of the Dominant Religions of the World." In addition to his literary labors he was a large contributor to the various periodicals of the church. The degrees of D. D., and LL. D. were conferred upon him by Heidelberg College. He was three times married—on April 21, 1841, to Miss Louisa C. Little, of Mercersburg, Pa., and to them four sons and one daughter were given. This wife died September 10, 1863. The second wife was Miss Emma J. Hivling, of Xenia, Ohio, with whom he lived happily for twenty-six years. On October 27, 1892, he was married to Miss Mary E. Gormly, of Lancaster, Pa., who survives him. He is buried in beautiful Woodland Cemetery, at Dayton, Ohio. The memory of Father Willard will go down the ages as a sweet savor, and hundreds of ministers and laymen in our Reformed Zion will ever call his name blessed.

REV. JARED FRITZINGER, son of Mathias and Elizabeth Fritzinger, was born June 29, 1822, and died at his home in Allentown, Pa., September 25, 1900, aged 78 years, 2 months and 26 days. He was baptized in infancy, and at the age of fifteen was confirmed. He studied five years privately under Revs. Drs. J. S. Dubbs and Christian R. Kessler, of Allentown, Pa. He was licensed to preach in the spring of 1851, and the same year accepted a call to the Liberty, Pa., charge, residing at Williamsport. In August, 1853, he became pastor of the Mohanoy charge, where he remained seventeen years. He rested for a year because of ill health, and then (1872) accepted a call to Moore Township charge in Northampton county, Pennsylvania. In 1876 he organized Christ Reformed Church in Allentown, Pa., and was its pastor until October, 1880, when his health failed. He again took up the work in 1884, preaching in a schoolhouse at Aineyville, Pa., organizing a congregation in 1885, and built a church. In 1895 he retired from the ministry. He was married May 15, 1842, to Margaret Hagenbuch, who preceded him to the mansion above, in March, 1890. He is buried in Union Cemetery, Allentown, Pa.

Century Subscription Contest.

Begins November 1, 1900, and will close March 1, 1901.

THE OPPORTUNITY OF A CENTURY. SOMETHING FOR EVERY ONE.

As a fitting celebration of the passing of a century, during more than half of which THE CHRISTIAN WORLD has served the church, we have planned, and now take pleasure in announcing, a Contest for New Subscriptions, beginning November 1st, and extending through the first and second months of the twentieth century. Our contest a year ago proved a great success. The value of the premiums offered was at once recognized. We believe our present list, however, to be more attractive. That contest was open to congregations and the various societies in the church.

THIS CONTEST IS FOR INDIVIDUALS.

Any pastor or member of the Reformed Church, German or English, in the United States, can enter the contest. Here are the Premiums:

An Estey Organ

First-class Typewriter.

White Sewing Machine.

Crescent Bicycle (for Lady or Gentleman).

Webster's International Dictionary.

The one sending us the largest number of new subscriptions between November 1, 1900, and March 1, 1901, will have first choice of these five premiums. The second highest will have second choice, and so on.

Any one sending us two new subscriptions, during the time of this contest, will receive a handsome Holman Vest-Pocket Self-pronouncing New Testament, bound in morocco, flexible, etc.

No subscription will be counted unless absolutely new and accompanied by the regular price—$1.50 in advance.

The paper will be sent as soon as the order is received, but no information concerning the progress of the contestants will be given any one during the contest.

A committee of well-known persons will award the premiums within ten days after the contest closes.

For full description of the premiums see THE CHRISTIAN WORLD.

Send for samples and particulars.

The contest will begin November 1st and will close absolutely March 1, 1901.

A NEW SONG BOOK FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The Service of Praise.

The Editors, having recognized the need of a song book for use solely in Sunday-schools, arranged on new and original ideas, herewith present

The Service of Praise.

Sunday-schools everywhere will find in this book Hymns and music of a much better character than is to be found in most books now upon the market. Notwithstanding the high quality of songs in THE SERVICE OF PRAISE, they are easily learned, owing to the bright, sparkling qualities of the melodies.

SYNOPSIS OF CONTENTS.

Department of General Sunday-school Songs, containing about 150 new compositions.

Department of Christmas Songs.

Department of Easter Songs.

Department of Children's Day Songs.

In the Christmas, Easter and Children's Day Departments are enough songs to last most schools a number of years.

For Anniversary, Harvest and Missionary Days there may be found an abundance of appropriate songs.

THE SERVICE OF PRAISE is a book solely for the Sunday-school, and has been compiled with this one object in view.

Mercersburg Academy

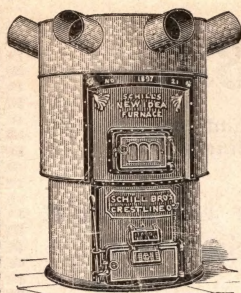

A High Grade School for Boys, located in the picturesque Cumberland Valley, a section noted for its beauty and fertility, and the high religious and intellectual tone of its people. Since its foundation the school has been free from malignant disease; water is supplied from artesian wells; the school has its own dairy and gardens, thus insuring purity and good quality in food products. A physician and a trained nurse are in constant attendance.

The Equipment of the School is modern, the rooms are large and well ventilated, each room receiving sunlight at least a part of the day. In August, 1900, the school's new dining hall and kitchen was finished. The kitchen, bake shop and refrigerator are models of their kind. The dining hall, 104 ft. by 43 ft., with quartered oak carvings, mosaics and stained glass, are a work of art. It is in "Baronial Gothic" style, and eminent art critics say this hall is the finest of its kind in America.

The Real Glory of Mercersburg is its power to mould boys into thorough students and manly men. A large faculty picked from the best colleges and universities, on the basis of scholarship and moral character, are the companions as well as the instructors of the boys. Personal interest is taken in each boy, the aim being to inspire in every student the lofty ideals of thorough scholarship, broad attainments, sound judgment and Christian manliness. Boys with vicious habits are not retained in the school, in consequence the moral atmosphere is pure. The opportunities given for development in vocal and instrumental music, social culture, oratory, debate, leadership, the writing and the speaking of English are unusual. College preparatory work has been especially successful. Mercersburg has representatives in more than twenty colleges and universities.

Athletics are Encouraged, with proper restrictions. Golf links with a nine hole course, three tennis courts, a quarter-mile track with two hundred and twenty yard straight away dash, three foot ball fields, three base ball diamonds, jumping pits and a large cage for winter practice, give provision for exercise and amusement. Boys who do not train with regular school teams are required to take either military tactics or calisthenics. For catalogue address

ZELIENOPLE, PA., Jan. 23, 1898.

MESSRS. SCHILL BROS., Crestline, O.

GENTLEMEN:—In my residence, the parsonage of St. John's Congregation, Beaver Co., Pa., we have one of your 24 New Idea Furnaces, which has been in use now during six winter seasons, and has not only given perfect satisfaction but required no repairs except a trifle in the smoke pipe. Our residence is a two story frame building, with 7 rooms and large hall, and while it stands exposed to the severest winds from all sides, we had the whole always house comfortably warm, using soft coal, for which we pay 5 cts per bushel. I can conscientiously recommend your furnace, and it affords me pleasure to do so, for I know from experience that a house with a good furnace increases the comfort of the inmates. Wishing you best success in your trade, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

C. BORCHERS, Pastor.

A SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST WRITTEN US:

"A religious paper conducted on such broad principles and comprising news gathered from all parts of the church, does a world of good in destroying sectional spirit, and cultivating a unity of feeling in the Reformed denomination. East and West, North and South, and our foreign fields, all are represented. The Christian World is indeed worthy of its name. I could not be without it now, and write these few lines to express my appreciation of its merits."
